

Educational Options Statements

Print and cut out the following statements so that each statement is on a separate slip of paper. Place all the statements in a bag or box and have the youth pick out a slip of paper and answer true or false or choose from the list of choices mentioned in the Educational Options Leader's Guide. Refer to the Leader's Guide for the answer key and further instructions.

This is a multi-hour exam designed to test your knowledge of math, science, writing, reading and social studies. You must pass each of the above subjects with a 60 percent or above.

Some colleges accept a GED and some do not. True or False?

To receive a Bachelor's degree, you would attend this type of school.

I can earn an Associate's degree at this type of school.

There are public and private colleges and universities. True or False?

The average cost of this type of school is $21,447 - $42,224 each year.

This type of school offers a variety of certificate programs such as welding, cosmetology, and culinary arts.

All schools are accredited. True or False?

All schools offer financial aid. True or False?

This post-secondary option includes the Army, Navy, Marines Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard.

All of these options except for one allow me to stay in foster care. Which one does not?

To attend these types of schools, you must pay tuition. What does tuition cover?